Teaming With Delta Air Lines To Host
May 17th “Global Meetings Webcast”

. . . Free Interactive Webcast Will Provide News, Tips, and Peer Insights
With Meeting Professionals & Incentive Specialists
Planning Programs Around The Globe

WASHINGTON, DC (April 2012) – If you are planning to conduct a meeting or incentive/recognition program outside of the U.S., you should consider participating in the May 17, 2012 “Global Meetings Webcast,” part of a series of webcasts presented by Associated Luxury Hotels International (ALHI), Associated Destinations Worldwide (ADW), and Delta Air Lines. The free interactive webcast is designed to make planning meetings outside of the U.S. easier by providing insight, best practices, and useful information for holding successful meetings around the globe.

Cultural Awareness One Topic May 17th

Topics addressed in the informative 45-minute webcast, starting at 1 p.m. EDT (Eastern Daylight Time) on Thursday, May 17, 2012, will include: cultural awareness tips for meeting internationally, such as language in RFPs, what to expect with a site visit, banquet and catering menus, transportation, and language nuances. The webcast also will provide timely international travel tips by Delta Air Lines as they relate to group travel, such as group accessibility, airports, exchange services, and customs. In addition, the webcast will provide an overview on what’s new and popular for global programs.

Kevin Hinton, executive vice president of ALHI and ADW – ALHI’s Global Solution, and incoming Chairman of Meeting Professionals International (MPI), will moderate the webcast, which will also include an interactive audience question-and-answer session, as well as a meeting professional peer-to-peer exchange, live from the studio.

On-Line Session May Take You Away

Participants will be officially registered for the seminar, plus for the chance to win a trip-for-two for a 4 day/3 night stay at the luxurious new Grand Resorts at Cap Cana collection in Cap Cana, Dominican Republic, a feature member of ALHI & ADW. The ADW prize drawing during the webcast also includes two round-trip business class tickets on the Delta system in the USA to/from Punta Cana International Airport, which is only 10 minutes from the resort destination. The Grand Resorts at Cap Cana will be featured in the webcast as one of the Caribbean's newest group destinations.

“We started the Global Meetings Webcast series as a convenient new way to share news, information, and destinations, and to seek unique insight and exchange perspectives to make planning Global programs easier. We hope meeting professionals and incentive specialists will enjoy the webcast and will learn tips and validate their direction for planning international programs, as well as gain insight into ‘what’s new’ regarding programs outside of the U.S.,” said Hinton, executive vice president of ALHI and of ADW.
